COMPLIANCE AND BUSINESS ETHICS HOTLINE

MCRA's Compliance and Business Ethics Hotline Helps Safeguard a Company's Operations, Reputation, and Financial Performance

Organizations committed to ethical and compliant behavior must ensure compliance issues are appropriately raised, investigated and resolved. The utilization of a confidential hotline has been recognized as a best practice by government entities and is proven to be effective in identifying issues that may not otherwise have been identified.

MCRA's Compliance and Business Ethics Hotline provides a convenient way for an employee to learn about compliance policies and procedures and to report issues.

Cost effective, secure, customized web based reporting solution.
Trained staff available during normal business hours through a toll free phone number.
